

Prodigal Son

In Prodigal Son, Christine Sutton has penned a tight, brutally honest portrait of a psychopath reminiscent of Theodore Sturgeons Some of Your Blood. This dark descent into the broken mind of Timothy Robert Shively will send chills down your back. Every word rings true, and every page is dark with menace. Do yourself a favor and pick this one up right now. You can thank me later. -Joe McKinney, Bram Stoker Award-winning author of Inheritance and Dead City

Timothy Shively is a very bad man. Under the thumb of his abusive mother, and trapped in the shadow of his absent father, Timothy embarks on a bloody, violent journey to find his place in the world. Was he born this way, or is he the product of his nightmarish upbringing? Decide for yourself as Timothy searches for his father as well as his own identity in this raw psychological thriller. What secrets will be revealed upon the return of the prodigal son? Warning: This book contains scenes of relatively graphic violence. Please use good judgement when purchasing.
